Announcement

Hey, Tinkler Bunkler Here, just wanted to announce that the document will be cut into 2 documents due to the fact that THIS document is so big that it just starts glitching past page 400

You'll see the OTHER half of the document when you finish this first half in a link once at the end of this same document, good reading!

This is a letter to all of you, dear readers, who have been patient enough to wait for the new document!
We, The Sprunki Files Newscast Team have decided to make a server where you, dear reader, will be able to get new information about the dramas!

Currently, the team is working as fast as we can on this, and we hope that you have the enough patience to wait for this!

Otherwise, we are glad and thankful for all of your support and acknowledgment of all the drama...

There will be a link below where you can enter the official server once finished

Link to the official server

Fixed!

Be sure to spread this specific link by the way!

Introduction

WARNING
Please read.

The following document presents sensitive topics and possibly triggering NSFW imagery and content for some people.

If, by any chance, you are one of these sensitive people, yet are curious enough to provide yourself with the information in this document, viewer discretion is advised.

It is recommended to read the whole document, as this is a whole web of connections between Pyramix and his associates, as well as other bad actors in the community

This same document is a continuation to the previous one, which can be found under this exact link

Bookmarks and checkpoints can be found here

As mentioned before

Any attempts to harass anyone mentioned in this document will only turn you into another part of the problem.

Otherwise, any new information will be accepted, and will always be welcome from part of our team!

Watch your backs, friends.

Stay safe

Grayzie, Pyramix, and the other associates' hypocritical, cowardly behavior.

Ever since this document has been released, the people accused of these actions have been trying to run away from any repercussions and consequences for what they did in the past and are trying to hide their marks and anything related to THIS DOCUMENT

Kanine joined the Official Sprunklings server and attempted to lessen the situation, finding excuses in his posts with Draker’s name, as well as trying to justify his actions shown in this document.

As far as it seems, Pyramix, Andrew/Tillz and Grayzie/Bill have cut contact with the Sprunki Night Team and left and/or were banned from their official server, as any evidence of their existence disappeared into thin air, only old messages being present in the server.

Evidence of Grayzie no longer being part of the Sprunki Night server ever since the documents were released.

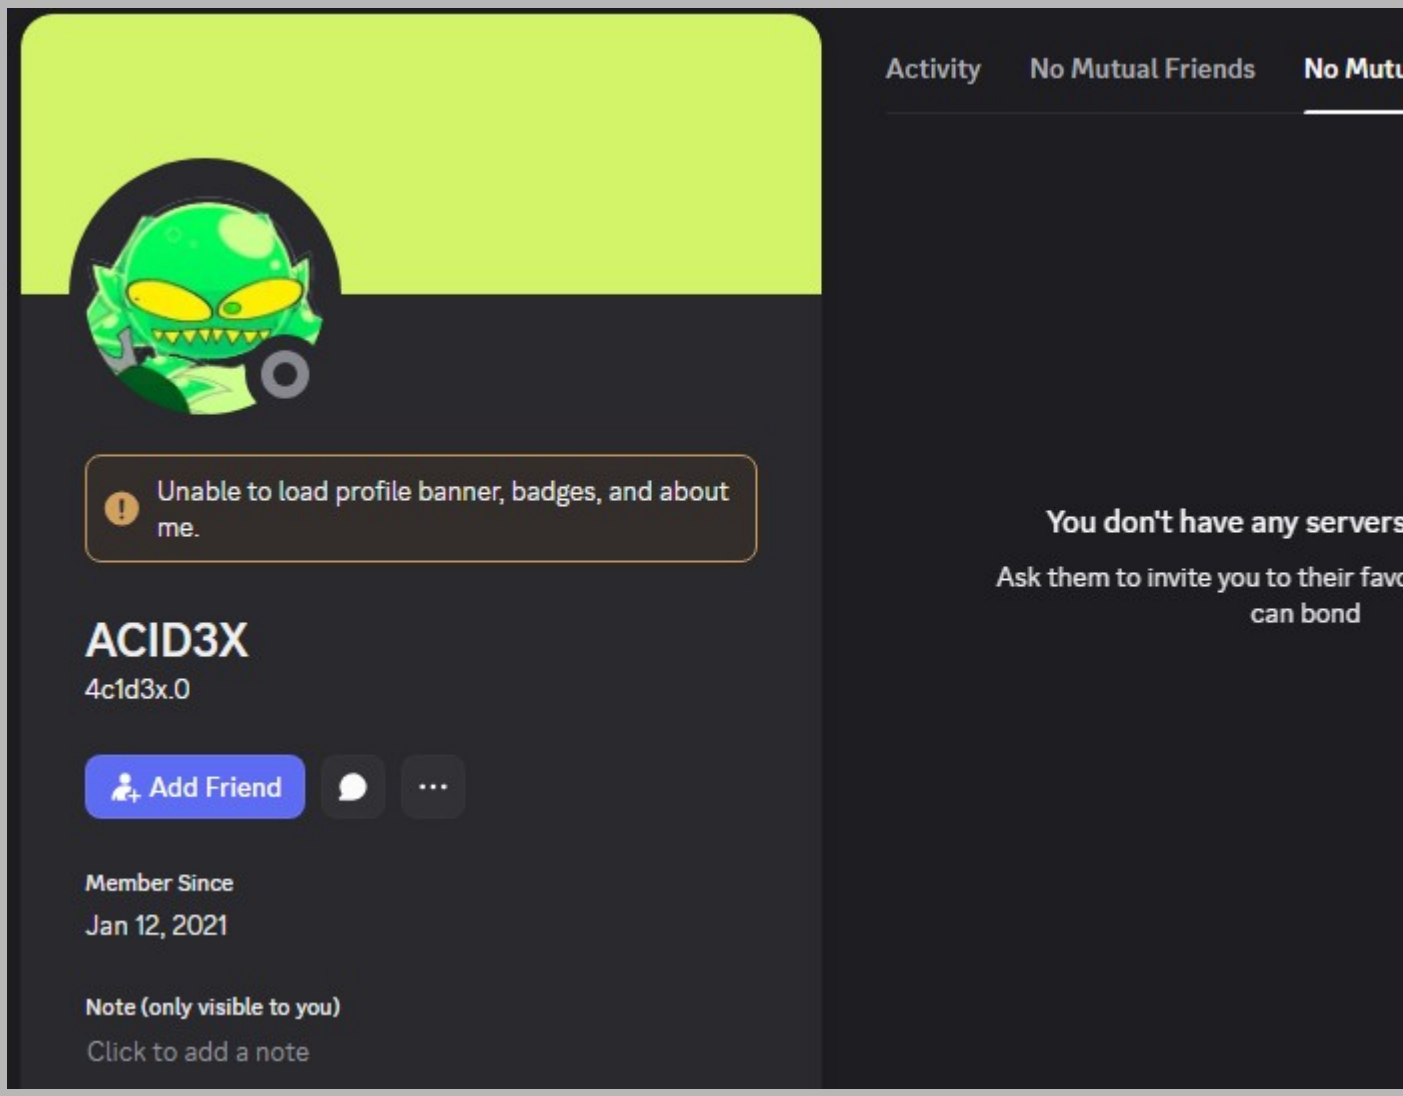
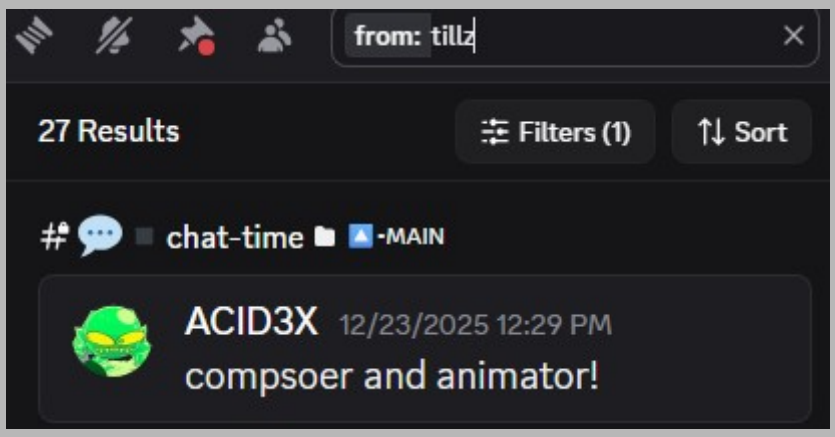
Censored server to avoid any backlash to their owner.

Profile seen from the Sprunki Night Server not loading, which means that Pyramix left/was banned at the same time that Grayzie did too.



No results in the search bar in the discord server about Tillz, as he could have left/been banned with them too.



Ever since, Andrew/Tillz has made a ‘counter-document’ against the first document released.

Pyramix is releasing ‘flps’ of his mods the same day as the previous exposure document was released.

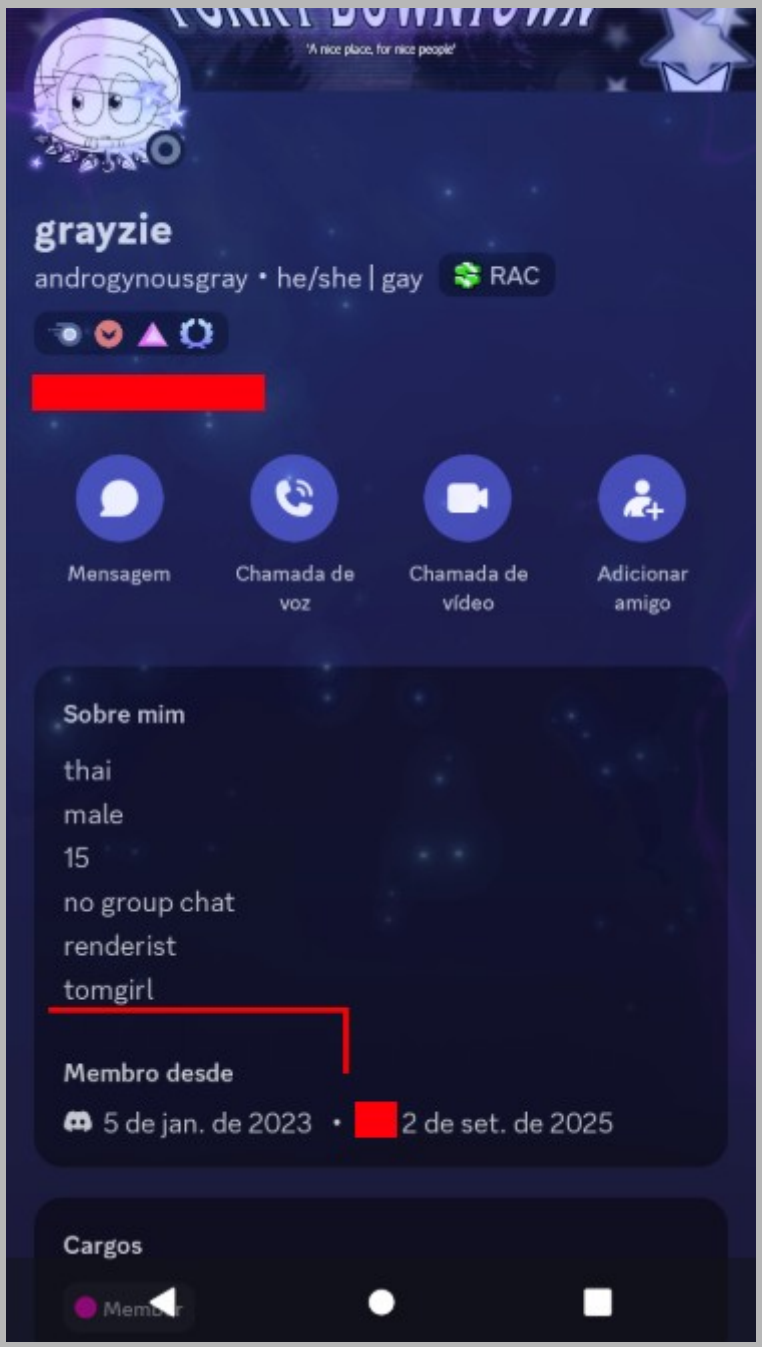
Any evidence of Grayzie and Pyramix being in a relationship is gone, especially since Grayzie used to have it in her bio, trying to hide any connections to his boyfriend.



No ‘Taken’ status.

Grayzie has cut contact with the others, in an attempt to hide away from the allegations
Otherwise, she has decided to not talk about the situation at all, just like she has done before.

Ok?

If Pyramix, Grayzie and the others know about this document and decide to read it or not, and then just try to run away and just avoid any BACKLASH from the community, even trying to counter this same document with whatever excuses possible.

hey guys im deleting this post after 1 day but should i change my name to sombra? ive been thinking about it recently and im kinda tired of spaghetti. if im being honest i dont even really like eating spaghetti too much anymore and i wanted your guys' opinion. also yes if you saw that "sombra" person on discord, yes thats me. i didnt even want to make a secret alt account but a few of my friends were sad that i quit discord so i made another account for them because it hurt me to see them sad. so i gave them a way to talk to me. but if one of them didnt get really sad i wouldnt have made a new account and all my old friends would be left behind, but i also am not as active on discord anymore even on my new account because back then i owned a server but you know having about 400 members filled with toxic gullible people and people that always caused drama in there was too much to handle. you know guys, i wanna give you a second chance, like how i ALWAYS HAVE in the past. its part of being a christian, forgiving. so im going to give you guys like a fifth chance to trust you all and i can start again as sombra, and even hopefully today or tomorrow reopen the spaghetti server but itll be called sombras subsociety or something. what do you guys say? i just want to be nice to you guys and make you feel better. so please dont make anymore drama in my server and then i will actually consider please dont mess this chance up guys. please.. im trying to be as nice as possible and im putting so much trust in you guys for like the 4th time. you guys probably get mad that i "quit discord" and then come back a day later. this time its been weeks and i still havent came back, because i really did quit. im only coming a i only made the secret sombra account to talk to friends. not to own a server. i already have a sombras subsociety server ready but i havent done much with it because i was planning this day to come. so again we come back to the conclusion. do i change to sombra?

And yes, I know that these are practically the same rules from spaghetti's now-defunct server. It's just that since I had these rules saved on my computer and they seemed to fit this server well, I just chose to use them as a template to save time.
Of course, I'll modify the rules as I observe this server's behaviour & needs and learn about Sombra's preferences. (editado)

Spaghetti, just like the other accused, has not only ignored the situation; he has literally been part of the same mindset of trying to run away from the accusations as much as he can

This only shows how cowardly they are, and how much they want to run away from anything related to what they have done.

There’s no use in this when you know you’re guilty.

Draker’s accusations

Draker, also known for being a Sprunki content creator and being one of the mainstream Sprunki-Mod content creators as well, has committed several cases of doxxing, which is a crime in many senses

From doxxing to revealing the faces of minors to the public without their obvious consent, Draker has shown a behavior that is very dangerous if provoked.

Garnold and his pure rotten mindset

Garnold, also known as Spaghetti/Sombra’s composer and friend, is also connected to the drama and directly responsible for multiple crimes himself

Garnold, alongside the crimes of doxxing and even being a person with pedophilic/predatory behaviors even for his own age

Subject Red and connections with CP

NOTICE

As from what I’ve been hearing from, people confuse Subject_Red and Subject_Blue as the same person.
I came here to explain that these two people are NOT the same for specific reasons.

Subject_Red is the person that is being accused of these specific things, CP connections and consume of the same and other things.

Subject_Blue is specifically someone else who shared the account with Subject_Red, as they are both siblings sharing the same account Remind you.

Subject_Red is NOT Subject_Blue, and viceversa.

✅ Generally legal

Rule 34 content is usually legal if all of the following are true:

- All characters are clearly adults (18+)
- No real person is depicted without consent
- No minors or "minor-coded" characters
- No extreme violence or coercion
- No animal involvement
- Purely fictional and consensual

This includes adult fan art, drawings, animations, or stories of fictional adult characters.

❌ Illegal in Canada

It is illegal if the content involves any of the following:

🚫 Minors (very strict)

- Any sexual depiction of minors
- This includes drawings, cartoons, anime, or fictional characters
- Even "aged-up" versions can be illegal if the character is clearly a minor in the source material

➡️ This falls under child pornography laws, even if no real child exists.

if the demon ocs were popular, here are some prediction mischaracterizations i think they would have

People would somehow make Suicidol have little remorse, DO NOT say that.
Suicidol is a sadistic creature who takes in pleasure of hurting people around him (both the other demons and me)
Sure yes he can feel sadness, but not in sadness guiltiness.

Hormii entirely being sexual? No! So the distasteful comic might actually reveal this but, Hormii mostly controls my motivation too! If she was entirely sexual, she would be on the bad side (this is why we have imcesty)

Revemg awakening on his own
This is entirely impossible, as he needs to team up with someone to continue his progression. Like the first time he made his appearance, he was teaming up with hormii, but that wasnt a really good fit.

Imcesty only being flirty and sexual around Suicidol.
Not really i suppose, he does that with almost every demon, even me, Suicidol is the only one who isnt weirded out by it though.

If you have any questions about any of the other demons, feel free to ask!

Hatter Exi has not only drawn OCs without consent, but has done NSFW from them, which most of them relate to literal CHILD PORN, which is a literal crime by itself

Besides this, Hatter Exi has been blaming other people for other crimes she has done, specifically grooming, which completely stains her own image by literally not being responsible for her own actions and even up to not changing even after all this time, especially after she was already exposed for what she has done

Hatter Exi isn't up to change, even after all of this has happened, even after the exposure document against her, and even after people have confronted her about it.

Response to the "counter-document".

As we expected from Pyramix and his associates, a “counter-document” has been released by Andrew/Tillz and the others, attempting to counter many of the allegations in our previous document.

Link to the document itself

Andrew says that the document has “good proof” even though it has been rushed in a whole day.

Bluestar’s conscious obliviousness and confirmation of being a pedophile

As you may have seen in the document or not, Bluestar’s accusations were talked about in the same “counter-document” that Andrew/Tillz released, which, ironically, literally has nothing to counter about the previous document

Andrew/Tillz desperately asking for help from Bluestar and mentioning the recruitment of other people against the previous exposure document.

Even with this, Bluestar still forgives Andrew/Tillz for what he has done.

Mm

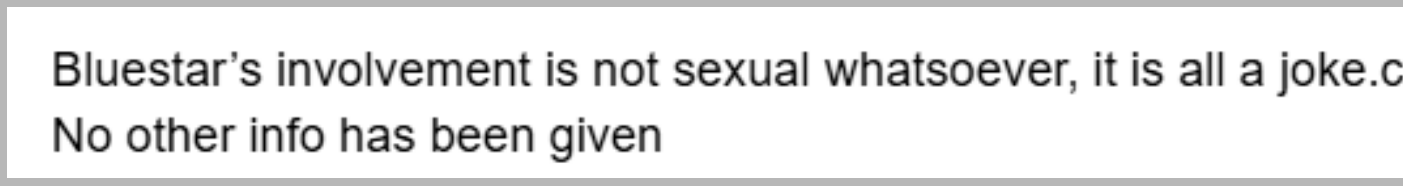
If Bluestar really did work in the document as well, there would have at least been more screenshots, or even evidence regarding the same issue that was put into the original document exposing Pyramix and his associates.



If by any slim chance, Bluestar did decide to work with Andrew and the others in this "counter-document", this simply makes an example of how AWARE they are of such actions and how they attempt to dismiss it or even lessen it by saying that it's a "joke" of sorts, even though Bluestar is literally an ADULT around MINORS.

Bluestar has LITERALLY done suggestive roleplays and other commentaries even with the fact that Bluestar is 19 and Pyramix is 14, which makes all of this extremely weird.

Just like the others, Bluestar lies about the situation and dismisses the gravity of the drama as ‘Old News’

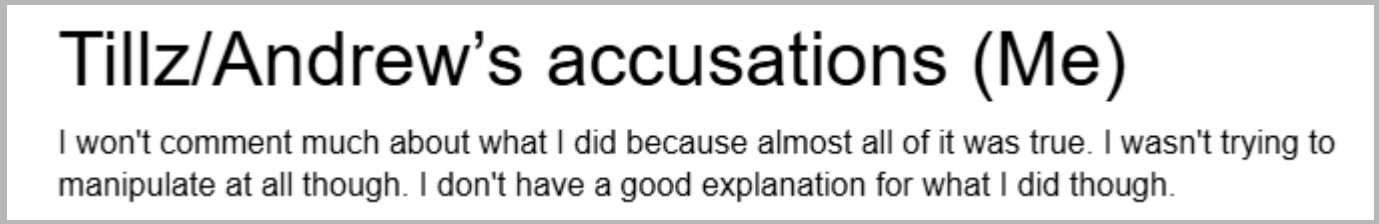
Bluestar has not only lied about his position in the document, but he also has enough bravery to go and get into a relationship with Pyramix despite the 6-year age gap

[Bluestar-4]

[B-Bluestar-4]

The “counter-document”s ignorance and unacknowledgement of the original exposure

Andrew/Tillz’s disgusting hypocrisy



Tillz/Andrew’s accusations (Me)
I won't comment much about what I did because almost all of it was true. I wasn't trying to manipulate at all though. I don't have a good explanation for what I did though.

A simple “I wasn’t trying to manipulate at all though” doesn’t excuse the actions that YOU did, Andrew.
Even if you don’t have a good explanation, it appears that you’re at least conscious enough to SAY that you did that, but desperate enough to clear your name by making a document with the others, yet trying to excuse yourself as well.

From this, information towards Andrew’s guilty pleasures has been gathered inside the team.

Andrew has been lying about it all, he has been hiding away from the truth from the beginning, and the fact that he wants to be seen as a “victim” simply tells a lot about what kind of person he is.

He’s a groomer, and he’s fully aware of it, but the fact that he doesn’t fully acknowledge it to change for good, or even have a glimpse of regret is truly disgusting, all while trying to copy and paste the same excuse.

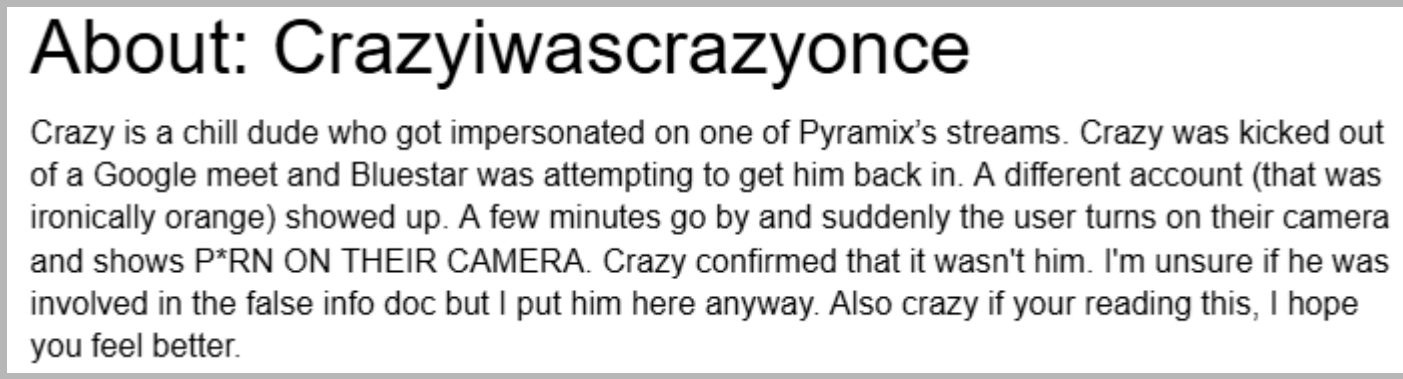
CrazyIWasCrazyOnce's unnecessary inclusion.



About: Crazyiwascrazyonce
Crazy is a chill dude who got impersonated on one of Pyramix's streams. Crazy was kicked out of a Google meet and Bluestar was attempting to get him back in. A different account (that was ironically orange) showed up. A few minutes go by and suddenly the user turns on their camera and shows P*RN ON THEIR CAMERA. Crazy confirmed that it wasn't him. I'm unsure if he was involved in the false info doc but I put him here anyway. Also crazy if your reading this, I hope you feel better.

Just like in the document says, most of the people that have worked in this "Counter-Document" haven't even read it in the first place, and proceed to include CrazyIWasCrazyOnce, who, in fact, was only included in the original document for exposing SpaghettiWorm/Sombra for his NSFW RP with Electrum.

Again, this "new info" that has apparently been thrown in the "Counter-Document" literally adds more onto the utter desperation that this group of people have, ever since We released the previous document, adding people who literally have nothing to do with anything but being a spectator of the drama itself, as well as adding accusations that could affect them.

Pyramix’s broken promise.

Pyramix/Acidex’s accusations
Pyramix did also do that shit
But he felt bad. We both felt bad. He made an apology video. TWO FOR THAT MATT
I can't really say much.
Oh also Pyramix did acknowledge the creator if it was in the fucking WIKI. Pyramix did acknowledge whoever made the original acid and in his words “Man this oc sucks why remake it as an SVG” (I don't fully remember his words but that's somewhat it)

First, there is no justification for making an apology video where the same apology is poorly constructed; if he REALLY meant such an apology, Pyramix would have at least been more genuine, honest, and not have dismissed it as a “mistake,” which, ironically, led to him making the SECOND apology video, with the same ingenuity and lack of acknowledgment of his grooming allegations.

Besides this, there is no “feeling bad” when it is about committing such crimes as making NSFW of a CHILD, as well as other NSFW art from other people Pyramix has manipulated and taken advantage of.

Pyramix PROMISED himself and everyone that he wouldn't do it again...
And yet.
He broke it

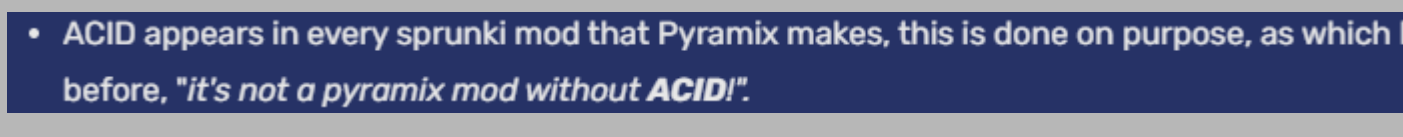
Second of all, in the wiki (as it's shown in the previous document), even if such original creator is acknowledged in the section of ACID, there is literally no reason for Pyramix to have claimed it for his own, as he has said that multiple times already when its about Acid.



ACID appears in every sprunki mod that Pyramix makes, this is done on purpose, as which before, "it's not a pyramix mod without ACID!".

If Pyramix really acknowledged such an original creator, then he would at least publicly say that it isn't his, as there is literally evidence about him claiming it as his own and saying that he stole it, as the same video is shown in the section of Acid’s true origins.

Besides, there is other evidence about Pyramix stealing OCs from other people and creating more NSFW/suggestive content about them without any permission given

Pyramix’s Manipulation and further NSFW material

If the NSFW art made by Pyramix about The Victim wasn’t enough, apparently, Pyramix had already made NSFW art of other minors in his circle of friends, even taking advantage of them and directly affecting them psychologically, which led to sexual behavior between them

On the other hand, an anonymous person has provided us information about their own point of view of what happened.

This contains NSFW material as well, so be careful.

alright,

Pyramix not only has made NSFW material of The Victim, but literally has done the same thing to other people around his friend circle, which further proves his degenerate and overall inappropriate behavior.

Remember that Pyramix’s art style correlates PERFECTLY to the NSFW images.

With this, we can say that Pyramix has been conscious about his NSFW drawings and about WHO he was making them out of.

Beyond this, there is also material that Pyramix has consciously stolen from, which, in fact, has been put under the rug ever since.
[Pyramix-1]

keep in mind, Pyramix also has some very immature behavior when he doesn’t get what he wants.

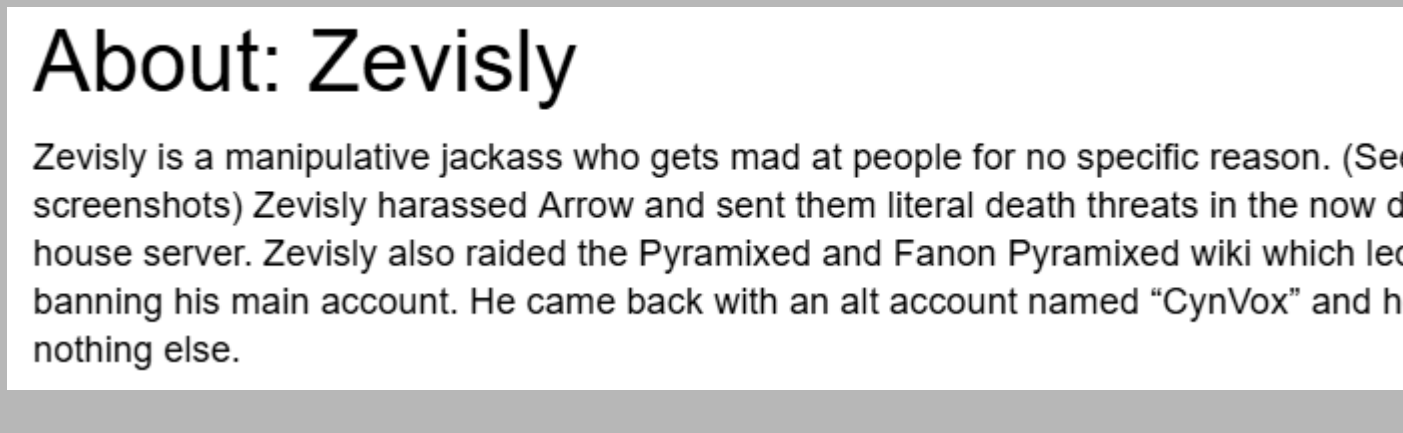
Zevisly’s accusations cleared out



About: Zevisly

Zevisly is a manipulative jackass who gets mad at people for no specific reason. (Se screenshots) Zevisly harassed Arrow and sent them literal death threats in the now d house server. Zevisly also raided the Pyramixed and Fanon Pyramixed wiki which led banning his main account. He came back with an alt account named “CynVox” and h nothing else.

Counter-comment to the aforementioned accusation from the group of the UTTG back in December, before New year.

Tinkler Bunkler 12/29/25, 10:06 PM
I don't judge ya there, maybe you dodged a bullet tbh-
Do you know the group UTTG? What happened between you and them?
[redacted] 12/29/25, 10:07 PM

Tinkler Bunkler 12/29/25, 10:08 PM

I think my neurons died sorry
[redacted] 12/29/25, 10:08 PM
yes???? i literally only gave someone admin because i thought itd be the funni turns out that dude was from whatever hitlermaxxing group that was

Not only does Tillz simply rely on simple insults without any solid, concrete evidence or proof in this same document, but he talks about a situation that I, Tinkler Bunkler, HAVE ALREADY asked Zevisly about and therefore, cleared out.

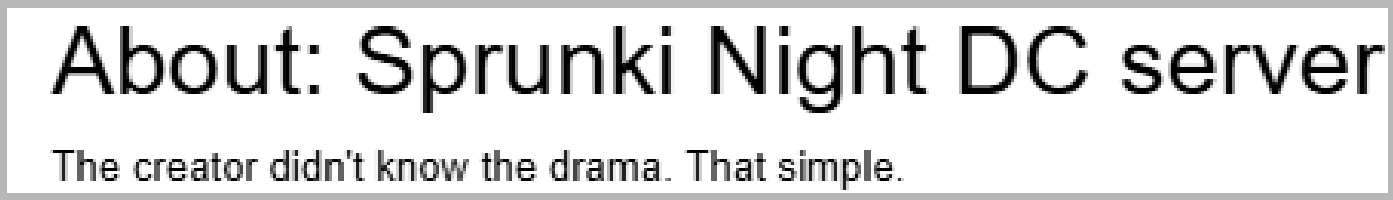
The Sprunki Night Team’s accusations



If this was true, then Mary.Wav wouldn’t have had such a model of Pencilz in the first place, which, remind you, the same item DID have the original creator’s name, being The Victim.

Besides, simply saying that the Sprunki Night Team’s Owner/Creator didn’t know about the drama without clear evidence or even a testimony from them means that you simply rely on doubtful words that only come from your own mouth.
If Israeen really didn’t know, he should speak by themselves, not from your own words.
